Broad Street Crowded Throughout the Day With Fair Admirers of the Beautiful.

Fredicted showers yesterday, which did rot materialize, did not stay the flood of ante-Easter shopping on Broad Street. From Seventh to First and beyond lovely woman was moving backwards and forward, pausing every few steps to adthere window displays and telling her companion all about the glories which will be unfolded on Easter morning.

Altogether it was a vivacious, a sparkling crowd of Richmond's fairest daughters, and the pressure inside the log stores was heavy. At this late date the shopping is grad-tally moving out of the dry goods stores to a certain extent, as milady's gowns have been selected, cut and possibly de-livered, mostly, before this. Still, in the dry goods stores the crowds are much larger than usual, the spring shopping leging very extensive. It is to the stores where bonnets are sold that most of the throngs are going just now. It will take milady a full week to decide just what tort of a chapeau will sit best on her fair head, and all her mental capacity is being concentrated in that direction.

Emong the dry goods men and the reliliners it is stated that the hat display this year and the display of early spring gewns far exceeds anything of the kind Lichmond has hitherto had in beauty. Ar several concerns along Broad Street generally above Seventh, there are displays of hats which keep crowds around the windows constantly. Many of the are imported, but the imported hat he had been supported by the constant had been crowds around not a very large sale here. Whether it is patriotism or pride is an unsolved these hats, the most striking of which are the chiffon rosette hats and the be flowered creations which are draped with black scarfs. The effect of this latter style on the heads of the gorgeously clad dummies in the windows is strik ing in the extreme. Other hats are mere ikwer beds with no sign of searf or drapery of any kind. One imported has which has attracted great attention is shown in Broad Street. It is made of nses entirely, there being no sign of the hat structure. In cloths silk is possibly the most pop-

far just now, followed closely by light frondcloth for the tailor-made gowns and then come the lighter materials framents for both hats and gowns this

THE STRENUOUS LIFE.

A Great Strain. one disputes the fact that we are in a "rapid" age; it is rush, rush, from morning until night, and coms not cease until the machine is worn . Women, too, even when surrounded every comfort, become infected by common spirit, and what with their tominon spirit, and what with their this and many social duties, have no ne to give thought to their physical hi-being, until they are suddenly ought to a sharp realization of the t that nothing in their lives is so im-riant as attention to correct or ra-mal living. It may surprise the readers learn that women are more prone to es than men, and in most cases, bee it is difficult to impress upon them importance of regular movements of bowels; irregularity means straining stool, and straining means piles, with certainty (under the usual methods treatment) that the sufferer will "heva an atway with her"; by "usual meth-is meant the application of salves lotions, or (as a last resort) a surgioperation. If there is a complaint ch entails more distress and suffer-upon those afflicted than piles, or norrhoids, it is not known to the dier; fortunately, however, these are uning that there is a remedy that ectually cures all forms of piles; it is own as the Pyramid Pile Cure, is in pository form, is applied directly to e parts, and does its work quickly and linessly; it is sold by druggists for try cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address, upon respit of price. Mrs. John H. Castona, Diz Arch St. Chicago, says: "I must write you that I was cured of a very aggravating case of itching and bleeding piles by the use of the great remedy Pyrnmid Pile Cure, even after several physicians had claimed there was no cure except by an operation. I am well now, and owe all to this valuable remedy. I cannot say enough for it."

TWO SESSIONS OF BOTH HOUSES

Congressional Reapportionment Bill Up in Senate.

MR. LASSITER'S ROAD BILL

Was Recommitted, but Will Be Reported Again To-Day-Conference Committee on Pension Bills-The Railroad Bill Amended in the House.

Both branches of the General Assem bly held two sessions yesterday, and dis-posed of many bills, though most of them were local in their nature. The Senate added amendments to the congressional reapportionment bill, put congressional reapportionment bit, put-ting Caroline back in the First District, Pulaski back in the Ninth and Man-chester, with Chesterfield, in the Fourth, The bill was ordered to its engrossment. After considerable debate, the bills amending the Baylor oyster survey laws were voted down. Many local bills were passed.

The House recommitted the Lassiter good roads bill after a hard fight, but it will be again reported to the House to-day. The House will meet at 10 c'clock instead of noon to-day. A disagreement was reported from the two Houses on the pension bills, and a joint conference committee was named. The House at its committee was named. The House at its afternoon session passed the bill allowing railroads to abandon their tracks and straighten curves at pleasure, but Mr. Duke succeeded in having it so amended as to protect property owners along the lines. The penitentiary bill was taken up but not disposed of, ce ate ession.

The Senate convened at noon, Lieuten antGovernor Willard in the chair, Rev. Richard McIlwaine, D. D., offered prayer. A number of House bills were referred to committees.

As the end of the session is approaching he Senate suspended its rule of referring all House bills to committees. A number were placed on the calendar. Some were passed out of their order. The Senate by a viva voce vote on mo tion of Mr. Gold refused to concur in the amendments to the Confederate pension bill, added by the House. This action was communicated to the House.

Mr. Caton communicated from the House the fact that that body refused to recede from its amendments to the Confederate pension bill and asked for a committee of

TAX ON TELEPHONES.

The Finance Committee reported a substitute bill for the bill reducing the tax and telephone transmitters. This substitute is the substitute of the control of the c on telephone transmitters. This substi-tute passed to the calendar. It leaves the license tax as at present-50 cents if a thousand or less, $1 if between one and two thousand, and $1.50 if over two thou sand. The bill adds this important provision:

"I'rovided that no charge shall be made against any telephone company chartered in this State for the privilege of prosecuting its business when such company is purely a local mutual association, and is not designed to accumulate profit for the benefit of or pay dividends to the stockholders or members thereof."

When Senate bills No. 154 and No. 155 to readjust the Baylor survey by including certain natural oyster rocks and de-claring certain lands within the survey to be barren area were reached, a considerable discussion was pecipitated. Mr. Shands and Mr. Sears earnestly opposed these measures as calculated to break down the Baylor survey and do great injury to the oyster interests of the State. During the course of this discussion the Senate took recess until 4 o'clock, HOUSE BILLS PASSED.

The following House bills were passed. To amend charter of Woodbine Ceme-tery Company.

To incorporate Armstrong Land and im-

To amend charter of the Richmond Traction Company.

As to pay of Charlotte county school teachers. To provide for new registration in Reanoke.

To provide a new charter for the town of Vinton. To incorporate Roanoke Lodge of Elks. Afternoon Session.

The Senate reconvened at 4 Mr. Keezell spoke in advocacy of the bills amending the Baylor oyster survey laws. The first bill was defeated by a vote of 13 to 3. The second bill was defeated by viva-voce vote. Mr. St. Clair endeavored to have the Committee on Roads discharged from the consideration of House bills to incorpo-rate the New River and Northern Railroad and to amend the charter of the Kadford Southern Railroad and Mining Company, but failed.

REAPPORTIONMENT BILL. The consideration of the congressional reapportionment bill; as reported by the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, was then taken up. A motion to pass the bill by temporarily was defeated by a considerable majority. Mr. Wickham moved to put Caroline county in the First District, as at present, rather than in the Eighth, as the bill proposed. This amendment was accepted by Judge Mann for the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and was agreed to. Mr. Cogbill moved that Manchester be put with Chesterfield in the Fourth District, rather than with Richmond in the Third. This amendment was also accepted and agreed to.

TO PUT HER BACK.

Mr. St. Clair moved to put Pulaski beck in the Ninth, rather than the Sixth. This was accepted and adopted. Mr. Ople moved to put Rockbridge back in the Tenth District, rather than is the

Paine's Celery Compound

HAS THE APPROVAL AND IN-DORSEMENT OF THE BEST PEOPLE AS A LIFE

No Other Spring Medicine Can Give Such Cheering and Happy Results to Sick and

As spring ushers in, the physically weak, sick and discased realize that their condition is one of extreme danger. It is a well known fact that while the trees bud and dress anew, thousands of men and women are cut off by the common diseases of life. This fact should arouse the attention of the alling and sick to the folly of underestimating and neglect-ing the ills that make life miserable at this season.

The use of Paine's Celery Compound at this time will save many a precious life. The great compound equalizes and calms all the nervous tissues and induces the body to take on tirm and solid flesh. It purifies the blood, as is plainly shown b the rapid clearing of the skin of all evi-dence of bad humors within; it regulates the organs of digestion; it gives natural

COL. BOWMAN'S BILL.

The bill amending the law in relation to State depositories so as to add banks in Roanoke and other cities caused some discussion. It was opposed by Mr. Boaz and advocated by Messrs. Jennings and Bowman. Mr. Folkes also opposed the bill. Mr. Sipe spoke briefly against it, but the bill was finally passed.

The House, on motion of Mr. Caton, refused to recede from its position in adopting the Caton pension bill as a substitute for the Senate bill, and asked for a conference committee.

Conference committee.

Mr. Southall moved to reconsider the vote by which the House committed the Lassiter roads bill, and it was opposed by Mr. Ryan. Mr. Lassiter had agreed to an amendment allowing the Governor to order the convicts back to the pen-teriary when it should appear that the Davis Shoe Company contract was in danger of being violated. By a vote of 34 to 33 the House refused to reconsider, Messrs. Duke, of Charlottesville, and Powers, of Caroline, opposed the Senate bill allowing railroads to straighten their tracks and remove their location. Mr. Duke made an exceptionally strong speech against the bill, and declared that It was an outrage upon the people of the State.

He was met at the door of the church by Father John, who had his buggy along, and the two got in to-gether. They turned into Marshall Street and drove rapidly up to Seventh. A Clay-Street car was passing along Seventh, but the occupants of the buggy thought there was ample time to cross over before it, and attempted it.

Two-thirds of the horse and buggy were across the track when the car came along and crashed into the hindmost end of the vehicle. The back wheels were broken and the buggy took several turns. The horse grew maddened with fright and dashed off, dragging the broken buggy and the two occupants along for some listance Finally the buggy twisted over again and threw Father John and Captain Conningham out. The horse kept on , and for the round trip from Richmond, Lynch When they regained their feet and their composure they learned upon examination that their injuries consisted only of some severe bruises on the arm and body. Their escaped was miraculous. Captain Cunningham went on to the church, and though he reached there too ate for the solo he was to sing, he joined

SPEAKER OPPOSES. My Ryan (Mr. Hunley in the chair) look the floor and made a strong speech against the bill. The measure provides that $5,000 be appropriated for the estab-lishment of stockades in different sections of the State, for the working of shortfor road improvement. Mr. Ryan's main contentions were that the bill would prevent the State from complying with its contract with the Davis Shoe Company and that it was in violation of the provisions of the last Democratic plating declared for working the roads by counties. Mr. Ryan and Mr. Lassister engaged in a running debate as to the probable effect of the bill and then the He contended that each loroads without State should work its own roads without State aid. Mr. Allen moved to commit the bill, and it was
